

Please do not change the legislation that has kept my home relatively free of telemarketing calls . This has been a blessing to my family , and we don't want it changed .